Our great charity work continues.

Here are a few of the quilts recently completed.

July and August have always been set aside for our summer charity workshops. But, of course, that is not the case this year!! Even though we are unable to meet, our charity work continues. Many thanks to Pam Donat, Louisa Jordan and Beth Anne Smith for doing an outstanding job on the baby quilts. And to Mary Harrigan, Joanne Shropshire, Kris Frey, Gilma Caslin and Terry Slotter for their quilting expertise.

Thank you to all CCQ members for sharing their time and talent to help others. It is greatly appreciated!

President's Message

Here we are, once again locked out of our building. When I called they said they hope to open it soon. Time will tell.

So I have been organizing my stash during this time at home I think every quilter should do this from time to time. While doing it I found blocks I have won from guilds. One set I won in 1997 and the other in 1998. Well, they no longer live at my house as I made them into charity quilts. I have been able to make a dent in my stash by making charity quilts.

To all of our membership that have been working on charity quilts, we thank you. Because of you we are still able to give quilts to Fostering Hope and Family Outreach.

Hope to see all of you some time soon. Until then be safe and, wear your mask.

Joanne Shropshire

Notes from Jerre

Programs - You are not going to miss any of the programs scheduled for the meetings we've missed. We are moving things around and rescheduling as we go along. All of the out-of-town teachers have been very understanding and cooperative. In fact, many of the "name" teachers that travel around the country have been posting free classes and tutorials on line. Check out the web sites of teachers you like.

Altered Panel Challenge - We will have the challenge whenever we do meet. If you need your quilt for a gift and will no longer have it by the time we meet, send me a picture of it or print a picture (8 x 10) and it will be included in the challenge.

PHD - It has been decided that if you finished a PHD and want it checked off the list, you can send a picture to Bobbi or Sandy and they will mark you done. I know many of us have finished quilts and if you want to gift them, this is a way to get them included in your count. We will try to include some in the next newsletter.

Send your picture to bobbicallisonr3@gmail.com or sjacobs005@gmail.com

THREE - YARD QUILTS

CCQ member, Paula Batson, shared with Margo the charity quilts she is making using patterns from books by Donna Robertson, called 3-Yard Quilts. There are several books in the series. There are also tutorials on YouTube showing different patterns from the books.

Links to a couple of the tutorials are provided below. You can find others just by doing a search for "3-yard quilts."
