

SNIPPETS

May 21st Program - Our very own, very talented Kathy Stuart loves to try new quilting techniques. . . you name it and she's tried it! But she really found her niche making award-winning wholecloth quilts. Kathy will discuss the many aspects of wholecloths and show some of her quilts. After lunch Kathy will teach a class on how to design and draw a wholecloth quilt. The class is full and the supply list has been sent. If you haven't received your list or you want to be placed on the waiting list, contact Margo Woolard at cdwool31@frontier.com or call 843-655-4826 - ASAP.

President's Message

Hello fellow quilters. It finally looks like our winter is, at last, over. I love spring and summer, the bright sunny days, the colors and smells of the flowers, fresh cut grass and the smell of rain. For me it's like my spirit is renewed or reborn. I get the urge to work on my nest and it puts a spring in my step and a new feeling of optimism. I guess it's because cooler or cold weather and the grayish skies just make me long for summer again. So, whatever your favorite season, I'm so glad you are part of our special group of ladies and men. I'd like to thank Kathy Stuart for her program last month on the various cutting machines. We saw the good, the bad and the one that didn't want to work with her computer, and got lots of great information. This month, if you signed for the class, you'll learn to create your own wholecloth quilt!

Once again, feel free to socialize when you come in and don't forget, we hope you will bring a little project to work on while you're here. Please remember to support our guild by getting your 50/50 tickets. Also, Jan McGinty will have tickets for the Cathedral Window quilt. You can buy some chances for yourself, or take some tickets to sell, or both.

See you on the 21st.

Kathy Aparicio

We know some of you haven't started your bird yet, and time is running out, but you still have time to get your challenge done before the

Piñata Class Show and Tell - Don't forget to bring your Piñata project from last month's afternoon alternative class for us to see.

Coming up in June - Parker Chiudioni will be our guest speaker. Originally she hails from Northern Virginia where she owned a quilt shop for more than 10 years. Parker and her husband retired 3 years ago and now reside in Leland, NC.

Parker will speak about the care and feeding of our most prized possessions. . .our sewing machines! This will include all three types of machines - what you oil and what your dealer does for routine maintenance. She'll talk about needles, thread, tension and provide all sorts of tips and important info you need to know to get the most out of your machine. Also, Parker and her husband will be selling top quality fabric from designers such as Hoffman, Kaufman, Blank, Quilting Treasures, Red Rooster, etc. . . 1/2 yards @ $4 each or a "buy 5 and you get two free" special. They also have batik fabrics for $9 a yard in 1 yard, 1 1/2 yard and 2 yard increments. You won't want to miss this meeting - lots of useful information and fabric - what a deal!

CCQ Charity Project Fund Raiser - Ticket sales are underway for our Cathedral Window Raffle Quilt. The drawing for this beautiful quilt will be at our 30th anniversary celebration on November 12, 2018. It is our hope each member will purchase or sell a book of 6 tickets for $5. Even though some of you have returned to your summer residence, you can still buy tickets by contacting Jan McGinty through email or texting, and we'll be happy to accommodate you. If you win, we will hold the quilt until you return. As an incentive, we are offering a prize for the person who sells the most tickets. You may be saying to yourself, I don't need another quilt, or I don't like this quilt, but if you were the lucky winner, you can gift it, sell it, donate it or give to the person who really wanted to win this beautiful quilt. Consider the purchase of your tickets as a donation to support CCQ charities. We are most grateful to those that have already purchased their tickets. Please see Jan for individual tickets and/or booklets of tickets. You can also contact her at 404-610-5086 or email - mcgintyjan@gmail.com or janmcg@sc.rr.com. Thank you in advance for your support!
