FILEA MARKET

February 17 Meeting

It's Flea Market Time Again

Get out your spending money! Twenty ladies have signed up for tables at our flea market! There will be plenty of opportunities to find real treasures and bargains. Please bring change and small bills if at all possible for the small items. There will also be larger items, I'm sure, so come prepared.

Doors will open at 8:30 for the Sellers.

All others will be allowed in at 9:30.

We will be announcing our Spring Challenge at this meeting. We are hoping for lots of participation with the results going to one of our charities. Details at the meeting.

President's Message

As I sit here recovering from having my other knee done, I keep thinking about everything I want to get done in my quilting room. There is so much I hope to accomplish in the next couple of months - some class samples and other projects that just call to me to make them. Let's hope I get them done.

February is the month for Love and as quilters we all have a love relationship with fabric. For some of us that love of fabric started very early in life. Others came to it at a later point in life. As we prepare for our meeting this month we will look at all the "stuff" for sale at the Flea Market and it should bring joy to us as we see it all as inspiring to us and our love of all things quilting. I hope we all find something that will inspire us on to a new project.

Reminder - Sellers, only, will be allowed into the room at 8:30.

Doors open for everyone else at 9:30

Joanne Shropshire

Notes from Jerre

To-Do List

- * Wear your name tag
- * Get a new parking pass - still only $1
- * Carpool if possible
- * PLEASE don't park in front of the mailboxes. There are spaces behind the building.
- * Pay your 2020 dues - $25
- * Turn in your PHD list
- * Bring Show and Tell.

February 17th Meeting - Be prepared to go home with some real bargains from the Flea Market. You know you will find something you can't live without.

Details of the Spring Challenge will be announced.

PHD lists are due - If you are new to CCQ and not familiar with our PHD (Projects Half Done) challenge, it is what is known in other guilds as UFOs. You can submit a list of up to 10 projects that you have already started but still need to complete. When you complete one of the projects on your list you need to bring it to a meeting for Show and Tell. It will then be crossed off your list and your name will put "in the hat" for a drawing at the December meeting. Bring your list to this month's meeting and give to either Sandy Jacobs or Bobbi Callison. You can also email it to Bobbi bobbicallison13@gmail.com

We hope this gives the boost you need to get those items completed.

Meet The Quilters - This is the last chance to sign up for MTQ, being held at the Myrtle Beach Base Recreation Center, (in Market Common) on March 26.

See Karen Bennett to pay your $12 fee. If you can't make the February meeting, please mail your check, payable to CCQ, to Karen Bennett, 614 Aspen Loop, Pawleys Island, SC 29585, ensuring that she receives it before March 1.

Grand Strand Quilters is hosting the event this year and are hoping for a big turnout. It is sure to be a fun day to meet and greet fellow quilters from 15 NC/SC guilds. The featured lecturer is Jan Krentz. Jan comes from the San Diego area and is an internationally recognized quilt instructor, author and designer. Winner of the 1998 Teacher of the Year award, Jan's motivating workshops are packed with practical tips, techniques and methods to insure success. Jan's most popular workshops are technique-rich piecing and design-focused. She is often called the "queen of Lone Star designs." Jan's newer diamond techniques are available in an online workshop: Diamond Quilt Designs with Blueprint.com and available with 24-7 access.

COMING ATTRACTIONS

In March, Colleen Martin will present a trunk show of the many bags she makes. In the afternoon she will teach a bag class open to all levels of ability. See the attached flyer. The supply list is posted on the CCQ website. coastalcarolinaquilters.com

April's program will feature "The Stars Among Us." We have many talented quilters in CCQ and they work in a variety of styles. This program will acquaint you with members whose work you may not be familiar with.

2020 Membership Directory - The latest directory has been completed and will be sent as an attachment in an email along with this newsletter and the treasurer's report.

Remember, the information in the directory is for CCQ members ONLY and not to be shared. Thank you.

The complete information for the following new members is included in the directory.
