- the monthly newsletter of Coastal Carolina Quilters

President's Message

Happy St. Patty's Day! And the first day of spring will be our March meeting. I think we all got spoiled by the beautiful weather in February but it looks like we still have some very cold nights coming up, so don't put those plants out quite yet!

I hope you got to attend Meet the Quilters on March 9th. Deb Tucker is just amazing and if you weren't able to take her class on Saturday, you missed a real treat! My points have never matched so beautifully.

Our Pickle Dish raffle quilt donated by Jerre Reese was won by Lorna Flynn, who is one very lucky lady – she also won one of Judy Colletti's quilts a couple of years ago! But not to worry – we have another one of Jerre's quilts that we will be raffling off in December. My husband really wants this one, so he is going to be buying a lot of tickets!

Don't forget that our yard sale is this month, so bring lots of cash. The guild will have a table with lots of goodies on it too.

I look forward to seeing everyone on Monday. And don't forget to bring your show and tell!!

Karen

March Yard Sale

This month's program is our yearly yard sale. There are still a few tables left. If you're a CCQ member and are interested in getting a table, please call Joanne at 843-957-0415.

For those who are selling, doors open at 9 AM. All others, please do not come too early—the hall will be busy with sellers setting up their tables. I know the guild will have items for sale, too, so bring lots of cash or your check book. There are all kinds of goodies to be had.

Challenge: Blooms, Bugs and Butterflies

Think of all things nature. Try to come up with a creative way to interpret our challenge. It can be with the fabric you choose or the pattern you use. We are excited to see what everyone comes up with this time. Your entry is due at our June meeting—that gives you 4 months to come up with a quilt!

Upcoming Programs

April—Holly Hull Trunk Show

May—Brenda Call Trunk Show

June—Barb Jones Trunk Show

One Block Wonder Class with Sandy Jacobs

Sandy will be teaching her One Block Wonder class for us! She will be teaching it in two parts. The first part will be held in the afternoon, after our April meeting and the second half will be after our May meeting. If you always wanted to learn how to make a one block wonder quilt, here's your opportunity. You pick one wonderful piece of print fabric and Sandy will teach you how to make it have that amazing look. What's really amazing is that two people could use the same fabric and end up with 2 different quilts. It should be a fun class. The registration form and the supply list for the class is on p. 5 and there are a few spaces left!

Beautiful example of Sandy's recent One Block Wonder.

Membership News

Anna Henry and Paula Batson

Thank you to all the members who paid dues! We've updated our lists and records to reflect all the changes.

Great news - we had 12 guests at our February meeting and 11 of them decided to join our guild! One guest was a former member who was visiting while on vacation.

Please welcome the following new members:

Cathy Auguste
Dee Bonuccelli
Linda R. Bridges
Chris Carter
Janine Fontaine
Kathy C. Gray
Carol A. Oldroyd
Valerie Rezendes
Rosette Risell

Kendra Walters
Patricia E. White

Please welcome back a former member who has re-joined CCQ:

Nori Thompson

All their information is included in the new directory.

The 2023 CCQ Membership Directory is being emailed to everyone and includes everyone who has paid dues through March 6, 2023. Please remember that the directory is for CCQ members' use only and should not be shared with anyone who is not a member of the guild.

Hope to see you at our next meeting,

Anna & Paula

"To Finish or Not to Finish... That is the Question"

Have you wondered what to do with the odd, orphan blocks you have collected or been given as family heirlooms? Do you have vintage or antique quilt tops that you just just don't know what to do with? How should these collectibles be finished? Or should they even be finished? Let's talk about it...

Thank you, Brenda Grampsas, for your "interviews with the quilters" that you lead so beautifully each month. At the February meeting, I was the victim ... er ... subject of your interview! It was great fun! Who's next???
