More Donated Quilts

Our local quilt guilds might not be able to have meetings at this time but that hasn't slowed down the generous spirit of our talented members.

Thirty-five GSQ and 7 CCQ quilts delivered to Fostering Hope. Tabby, Etta, Al and Jill were so happy to get them. They aren't allowing the foster parents and children in the store yet. They call ahead. The clothing, quilts, etc. are bagged up and ready for the parents to pick up. Tabby said these quilts would not last long. They recently bagged up supplies for 36 kids. So sad there are so many children in need but we are so happy we can spread a little sunshine.

President's Message

Well ladies, the Rec center at Oceanside Village is still not open so that means another month with no meeting. I know it is hard not seeing each other but we must follow the rules.

My guest room has piles of stuff to be taken to guild and the piles are growing. Most of us must be going through a lot of our stash.

I know many of you have piles like me and if you wish to drop them off and get them out of your house I'm sure either me or Margo can meet you and take them off your hands.

Be safe and hope to see you all soon. Until then, it's you and your sewing machine - best friends

Altered Panel Challenge

We will move the due date to the September meeting. This should eliminate any excuses for not having enough time. It's becoming the "never ending" challenge.

Reminder of the challenge details - Choose any panel you wish and make it more interesting. Do not just add borders and call it done. The idea is to spark your creativity and do something different. The Panel needs to be quilted and bound to enter into the challenge. Prizes will be awarded for creativity.

Even our four-legged friends are benefitting from our lockdowns.

Through a joint effort by Margo, Maggie, Mary Harrigan, Joanne, Sandy, Bobbi, Kathy Henry, Terry, Jerre, Pat Sprecher and Pat Roman, Margo delivered 26 dog beds to the Humane Society of North Myrtle Beach!!!

That's what happens when a bunch of quilters are cooped up for 2 months!!

They asked if we could make smaller beds for the kitties too and, of course, Margo said sure.
