As of today, we have 8 people interested in the two-1 day Shop Hop trips. I am planning on where to meet that morning and I have a FULL day planned for both days. If anyone is still interested and is not on the list, please email me at: louise.veverka@yahoo.com.

I have planned for the following Shop Hop Dates:

Saturday September 21, leaving at 6 a.m. to begin our journey and returning the same day early evening.

And

Tuesday October 22, leaving at 6 a.m. to begin our journey and returning the same day early evening.

In the end we will have the entire East Central Region completed. It's an ambitious plan but I'm certain we can do it.

Remember to purchase your longarm raffle tickets from Anna and get a quilt finished for Christmas. All proceeds go to the guild.

I know the program committee met last month and are working on some fun things for 2025. I can't wait to hear all about them.

That's all I have for today. I hope everyone is having a great summer and enjoying the cooler temperatures we have as we move into Fall. Cooler weather brings out all the beautiful quilts.

I will miss seeing all of you this month and I'm sad that those great buys will be going you and others and not me.

Thank You, Mo for helping me out this month.

Charity News

Margo Woolard

In August, instead of a charity workshop we made favors for Meet The Quilters 2025. Our goal was to get 600 fat quarters cut. However, you'd think we were in Vegas! We hit the jackpot!! In 1 hour, 9 cutters got 777 fat quarters cut!!!! Within 3 hours we had all the FQs pressed and folded into stars. Now that's what I call teamwork!!

Thanks to Maggie Ogniek for her tutelage on how to turn a FQ into a star. In fact, everyone that came to help was a star!! Kudos to you all. And a special thanks to Karen Fedor for donating all those beautiful batiks.

Charity News:

Homespun Kits: Please return all the homespun kits this month, if possible. Getting the tops sewn is only the first step in the process. Once we get the tops we can cut backing, batting and binding. Our plan is to spray baste all the tops at the end of October.

Fostering Hope (FH) Quilts:

After the August meeting we donated 15 boys and 10 baby quilts. Thank you all for a fine job. However, FH is still in dire need of more boy's quilts. With your help, we try and keep the pipeline of quilts flowing. Two weeks ago we cut 40 batts and we now have a new batch of quilts available for longarmers and domestic machine quilters as well. Please see Margo or Pam to get quilts to take home.

Kits, Kits and more Kits are Ready: We have loads of pillowcase, baby, bead bag and FH kits ready. Please, come by the tables and take a kit or 2 home to sew.

Did you know? There's a CCQ Facebook Group. Search for "Coastal Carolina Quilters" and ask to join the group!
